PLATINUM MEDAL

"Chardonnay lovers will likely swoon over the price nearly as much as they do the wine. Davis Bynum's 2013 Chardonnay comes in under $30 a bottle and delivers tremendous bang for the buck with a vintage that is both rich and elegant, showing a beautiful layer of lemon crème with mouth-watering acidity and a touch of woodsmoke. A panel of advanced and master sommeliers at the 7th annual Sommelier Challenge International Wine Competition awarded it 94 points and a Platinum medal."
