“From a five-acre block of Sauvignon Blanc on loamy soils, this wine is fattened up by a portion of fruit that’s fermented and aged in neutral French oak and acacia barrels. It doesn’t go through malolactic, so it sustains its TANGY FRESHNESS, with notes of tart apple, white cranberries, Crenshaw melon and some green-peppercorn spiciness. JUICY AND CLEAN, it’s ready for melon with prosciutto.” - J.G.

Davis Bynum is distinguished as the first winery to produce a single vineyard Pinot Noir from the Russian River Valley. The vintage was 1973 and the grapes were from Joe Rochioli’s now prized vineyard. Today, our heritage of winemaking lives on through hand-crafted single vineyard wines grown exclusively in Russian River Valley.
