“It was David Bynum who produced the first single-vineyard Pinot Noir in the Russian River Valley, and the fruit came from Rochioli Vineyard. This release celebrates the 50th anniversary of that release. Lip-smacking tannins deliver a rich, savory soul, with an inner light achieved through its ethereal, exotic notes of jasmine, peony, rhubarb, and raspberry. Notes of parchment, red sweet beets, and wet stone are an ode to its distinguished terroir.” – M.M.
